

A Quiz about All Sorts of Music

1. Can you name any musical instruments that are mentioned in the Bible?
2. A symphony orchestra is comprised of instruments which are classified into four different groups. Can you name them?
3. Mario Lanza sang I'll Walk with God, The Drinking Song and Serenade in which musical written by Sigmund Romberg?
4. Just an Old fashioned Girl, My Heart Belongs to Daddy and C'Est Si Bon are three songs popularised by which famous American singer?
5. Can you name the famous Three Tenors?
6. Thanks for the Memory and Buttons and Bows are songs traditionally associated with American comedian, actor and singer Bob Hope. Where was he born? Was it
a) Wales b) Canada c) England d) USA
7. The musical West Side Story is a contemporary retelling of which Shakespearean play?
8. What instrument did jazz musician Louis Armstrong play?
9. The songs Mrs Worthington, The Stately Homes of England, I'll See You Again and Mad Dogs and Englishmen were written by which celebrated flamboyant English composer, playwright, actor, singer and director
10. How many keys are there on every modern piano? And do you know how many black and how many white keys?
11. What is the name of the musical group from Liverpool which became the most famous singing/composing group in the world in the 60s and 70s?

A Quiz about All Sorts of Music

The Answers

1. Harp, horn, pipe, timbrel, lute, trumpet, lyre, flute, bagpipe, tambourine, castanet, cymbals, gong and the human voice
2. Woodwind – clarinet, oboe, flute, piccolo, bassoon, cor anglais, contrabassoon
Strings – violin, viola, cello, double bass
Brass - trumpet, trombone, French horn, saxophone, tuba, cornet
Percussion – cymbals, drums, marimba, xylophone, tambourine, bells, tubular bells, triangle
3. The Student Prince
4. Eartha Kitt. She was a famous singer, actress, dancer and comedian, known for her particularly distinctive singing voice.
5. Placido Domingo, Luciano Pavarotti and Jose Carreras
6. Bob Hope was born in Eltham, London, England in 1903. He lived to be 100.
7. Romeo and Juliet. Neither end well.
8. Trumpet
9. Noel Coward
10. There are 88 keys on a modern piano, 52 white and 36 black.
11. The Beatles